

Rural Renewal Immigration Program

Interested in the Rural Renewal Program but not sure what our process is? This will help!

Process

Step One

Employers with vacancies work with Brooks Newell Region staff to determine eligibility and agree to participation in the program.

Step Two

Candidate reads, understands and meets all program eligibility as listed on the Government of Alberta website.

Step Three

Candidates review the job postings on the Brooks Newell Region website and apply for positions they're qualified for.

Step Four

Candidate is hired and receives a bona fide job offer from an employer for full time, permanent work.

Step Five

The Workforce Development Committee reviews the candidate and decides whether or not to provide an endorsement letter.

Step Six

Candidate applies for nomination through the Alberta Advantage Immigration Program Portal

Brooks
Newell
Region

The Process

The Region will post vacancies on the Region's website but candidates will apply directly to the employer.

- Employer Responsibility
- Community Responsibility
- Candidate Responsibility
- Government Responsibility

Contact Clarisse Dela Cruz, Workforce Development Officer
cdelacruz@brooks.ca, for more information or to promote job vacancies.

